DESTINATION

Ibiza has a lot to offer to the one that falls in love with it.

Spanning 572 km² and with a coastal length of 210 km, there are more than 40 islets of various sizes, each one no more than 41 km from north to south, and 15 km from east to west.

Ibiza is internationally revered for its incredible coves and beaches, the beauty of its crystal clear waters, its lush climate, the bustling markets, and its famous nightlife that features an abundance of fiestas and discos.

All of this comes together to create an unbeatable destination for any holiday or event. Ibiza is well connected to the rest of Spain and other European countries, and it is easy to get to by plane as well as boat.

Santa Gertrudis. A charming village in the heart of the island.

Just 10 minutes from any part of the island, this inland village is characterised by traditional white houses set against a typical Mediterranean backdrop. Despite its small size, it is well known for its delicious gastronomic offerings, the high-concentration of arts, crafts, and fashion shops, and the calm ambiance that imbues its rustic streets.

HOTEL

A boutique hotel in an unbeatable location.

Opened on 16th June 2016, the Gatzara Suites Santa Gertrudis sits in the heart of Ibiza and honors the carefree, bohemian spirit of the island. Elegance, design, tradition, and avant-garde nuances come together to create a collection of spacious and bright rooms. It's the best place to write your own Ibizan story.
